

Tim Starks - board member of CSPOA (Constitutional Sheriffs and Police Officers Association)

Tim Starks has been an entrepreneur for over 25 years. He is a family man with strong Christian beliefs who is dedicated to creating a more self sufficient lifestyle for families. According to Tim, his favorite thing to do is working on his inventions. He holds certificates in business management and marketing as well as certifications in network security, networking, physical security management and disaster recovery analysis. Mr. Starks is also certified in executive protection.

Tim worked as a private investigator and executive bodyguard from 1990-1998. He is currently CEO/CIO of cyber and physical security incorporated companies and preparedness disaster recovery gap analysis consulting. As a CEO he has worked with clients from a variety of business and government sectors: colleges, police departments, state agencies, federal agencies, insurance companies, defense contractors, municipalities, airports, power plants, mines, banks, large retail, pharmaceutical, jewelry and diamond suppliers and manufacturing. If that's not enough, Tim is a current NRA certified instructor.
